WELLNESS @ WORK:
INCORPORATING HEALTH PROMOTION INTO THE WORKPLACE

MARCH 4, 2014

I would like to extend greetings to all the participants in the Wellness @ Work: Incorporating Health Promotion into the Workplace workshop.

Our government maintains a strong commitment to the health of workers in B.C. By investing in workplace health and wellness promotion, we can help to improve the health of families in British Columbia.

British Columbians can be proud of our province's leadership in cancer prevention and treatment. We have some of the best cancer survival rates in the world with the lowest overall mortality rate and incidence rate for almost all types of cancers in Canada for both men and women.

Through our work with WellnessFits, a workplace wellness program developed by Healthy Families BC and the Canadian Cancer Society, BC and Yukon, we are working to improve the health of employees at the workplace while reducing their risk of cancer and other chronic diseases.

Sincerely,
